MULTIPLE “OUTDOOR” SPORT FORMAT

The NGN Outdoors Noontootla Grand Slam is a multisport “outdoor” competition to test the skills of sportsmen in three categories. The categories are:

Shooting clays - Sportsmen must demonstrate shot accuracy, and consistency. Shooter with the highest percentage wins the category.

Fly-fishing – Skills in fly presentation, cast accuracy will come in handy for this category. Fisherman with “landed” catch of greatest weight and subsequent length takes the category.

Quail or Pheasant – This category remains last in order, as a climax to the event. Within State regulated guidelines, hunters will be judged on overall harvest success rate, field control, and teamwork the pointer (dog).

*NGN’s Inaugural Grand Slam was held past bird season. Shooting Clay percentages will stand for competitor’s score.

‘North Georgia’s future technology based economy starts with the will, which we have, to build critical infrastructure for our communities. “State Senator Steve Gooch 2014
